

Music Camp Communique

Editorial:

Welcome to the first edition of Music Camp Communique. It is our desire that this newsletter can keep us all in contact and encouraged between music camps. Often we experience a real genuine high at music camp then after a while find ourselves alone and in need of encouragement and we begin to lag in the battle of faith. Let us follow the advice of Hebrews 3:12-14 through this communique.

We will begin with bi monthly newsletters but if there are lots of testimonies we will include more than one testimony per newsletter and we can change it to 6 weekly or monthly.

If you've ever wondered how you can serve God with your talents here is a very encouraging excerpt from Amazing Grace page 201 whole page is worth reading.

"... Go forth, young disciples of Christ, controlled by principle, clad in the robes of purity and righteousness. Your Saviour will guide you into the position best suited to your talents and where you can be most useful.

"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him" (James 1:5). Such a promise is of more value than gold or silver. If with a humble heart you seek divine guidance in every trouble and perplexity. His word is pledged that a gracious answer will be given you. And His word can never fail. – AG 201.3

Have you had an experience since camp you'd like to share, small or large?

Would you like to thank God for something?

Has something inspired you lately. You might be tempted to think that your testimony is not very important, but be assured that it will touch a heart and will be just what someone needs to hear.

(If any little word of mine ...)

Would you like to share it here?
(Ps. If you're extra shy you can just add your initials!!)

"Music camp has really inspired me to read my bible and pray more. Before music camp I didn't mind reading my bible but now I LOVE reading my bible. Music camp has impacted me in so many positive ways.

During Music camp I made the decision to be a faithful follower of Jesus and get baptised. I was baptised on the 6th October at the WA D'Sozo Camp. It was a very special weekend. I hope you come to music camp 2019. It will be a great blessing."

1. Watch, ye saints, with eye-lids wak-ing; Lo! the powers of heav'n are shaking;
2. Lo! the prom-ise of your Sav-iour, Par-doned sin and purchased fa-vor,
3. Na-tions wane, though proud and stately; Christ His king-dom hast' neth greatly;
4. Sin - ners, come, while Christ is pleading; Now for you He's in - ter - ced-ing;

Eyes Fixed Upon Christ—When Christ took human nature upon Him, He bound humanity to Himself by a tie of love that can never be broken by any power save the choice of man himself. Satan will constantly present allurements to induce us to break this tie—to choose to separate ourselves from Christ. Here is where we need to watch, to strive, to pray, that nothing may entice us to choose another master; for we are always free to do this. But let us keep our eyes fixed upon Christ, and He will preserve us. Looking unto Jesus, we are safe. Nothing can pluck us out of His hand. —Steps to Christ, 72 (1892)

The Lord is soon to come, and we must be prepared to meet Him in peace. Let us be determined to do all in our power to impart light to those around us. We are not to be sad, but cheerful, and we are to keep the Lord Jesus ever before us. He is soon coming, and we must be ready and waiting for His appearing. Oh, how glorious it will be to see Him and be welcomed as His redeemed ones! CCh 356.4
