

Music Camp Communique

Editorial:

It's almost 6 weeks since we said goodbye to a wonderful inspiring and uplifting camp. How have you been faring since then? Have you been tempted to loose sight of your comittment to God and your pledge? Can you remember your pledge? Do you still carry it around with you? Have you read it?

To those who have chosen to follow God through baptism, how are your baptismal studies going?

If you feel you have slipped back don't be discouraged, God is our refuge and strength a very present help in trouble. Ps 46:1. He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. I Corinthians 10:13 says. There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that you may be able to bear it.

Watch and pray, that Ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is welling, but the flesh is weak. Matthew 26:41

"Prayer brings Jesus to our side, and gives to the fainting, perplexed soul new strength to overcome the world, the flesh, and the devil. Prayer turns aside the attacks of Satan." COL 250.2

Satan dreads to have us pray. There is a mighty power in prayer. Our great adversary is constantly seeking to keep continue reading at the end of the communique.

Camp Fire Sharing Continues

At my school I do Bible studies out of school hours with my Bible teacher Mr Williams. I praise God for this man! He has been one of the best things that has happened to me! When I study with him although it might be an old topic I always get something new out of it every time! On one particular afternoon we had almost finished the Bible study and right when we were about to pray Mr Williams said, "Olivia, do you have any prayer requests?" I thought for a moment then God popped an idea into my head!

"Yes, can we pray that I can find someone to share Christ with and get him/her to come to our Bible studies?" So we prayed. That night I climbed into my wardrobe and prayed for a couple hours for the right person to lead to Jesus. About half an hour after I should've been asleep, God put someone into my head. Lucas! ... Really? I tried to think of another person ...

Pick a Promise

- John 16:33
- Psalms 71:3
- Proverbs 4:13
- Deut. 31:8
- Psalms 27:14

"Ok, God. If you open up a situation for me to speak to Lucas and he agrees to come, then I'll ask him."

I climbed into my bed and was soon fast asleep.

I want to thank God for showing me who I should pray for and who I should strive to lead to Christ and, even though its been a while and it seems like God may have forgotten (but He hasn't) I'd like everyone to pray for an opportunity to open up so I can share Christ to others.

Music camp was a great experience for me. It was my first music camp.

I made lots of new friends.

But there was a greater experience I received and that was know who Christ really is and growing a really connection with Him.

I learned how to study the bible better and received a greater desire to do deeper morning devotions.

I want to be baptised.

Thanks everyone for your encouragement and help in studying the bible.

Have you had an experience since camp you'd like to share, small or large? Would you like to thank God for something? Has something inspired you lately. You might be tempted to think that your testimony is not very important, but be assured that it will touch a heart and will be just want someone needs to hear.

(If any little word of mine)

Hymnspiration

Throw out the life line across the dark wave;
There is a brother whom someone should save;
Somebody's brother! O who then will dare
To throw out the life line, his peril to share?
Throw out the life line! Throw out the life line!
Someone is drifting away;
Throw out the life line! Throw out the life line!
Someone is sinking today.
Throw out the life line with hand quick and strong:
Why do you tarry, why linger so long?
See! he is sinking; oh, hasten today
And out with the life boat! away, then away!
Throw out the life line to danger fraught men,
Sinking in anguish where you've never been;
Winds of temptation and billows of woe
Will soon hurl them out where the dark waters flow.
Soon will the season of rescue be o'er,
Soon will they drift to eternity's shore;
Haste, then, my brother, no time for delay,
But throw out the life line and save them today.

The Lord has given to the youth capabilities and talents with which they are to do the work of God. I ask you, dear youth, are you going to give yourselves to the Lord? Are you ready to engage in the work he has left you to do? Jesus said to his disciples, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."... Satan is constantly telling the youth that in living for the world great rewards will be received in this life; but this is not so. ... There are souls to be saved. ... I know that the age in which we live is not conducive to godliness. We have pleaded that the youth might be clothed with the beautiful garments of Christ's righteousness, that they might work with all their God-given ability to rescue souls that are perishing. Dear youth, we appeal to you to pray to God that you may be converted, and show by your actions that you love Jesus, and carry a burden for the souls for whom Christ has died. Pray that the Holy Spirit may be poured upon you, that you may ... take in the significance of the plan of salvation. Pray that the sanctifying influence may come upon you, that the presence of Christ may abide with you; for Jesus has said, "Without me ye can do nothing." – {Y1 November 17, 1892 Par. 7} - Mrs. E. G. White

... the troubled soul away from God. An appeal to Heaven by the humblest saint is more to be dreaded by Satan than the decrees of cabinets or the mandates of kings." HP 82.5

Satan cannot overcome one who prays.

"The enemy cannot overcome the humble learner of Christ, the one who walks prayerfully before the Lord. Christ interposes Himself as a shelter, a retreat, from the assaults of the wicked one. The promise is given, "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him." ... There is no power in the whole satanic force that can disable the soul that trusts, in simple confidence, in the wisdom that comes from God." ML 316.2,3

Take courage from Philippians 3:13,14

Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended [taken hold of] : but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

If you have had any experiences in overcoming and/or standing up for your faith at school, home or community please share so we can encourage one another in our Christian journey. If you would like extra prayer please text Mr Higgins or myself and we will be happy to prayer for you.

Jesus is coming soon. Hold fast till I come. Revelation 2:25
