

Music Camp Communique

Editorial:

Did you know that your faith in God is anchored to a very particular place? When you pray for strength or a kinder tongue, those prayers go to the exact same place! Jesus is there now, working for you.

“This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and one which enters within the veil, where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a High Priest forever...” - Hebrews 6:19-20

Your faith in God stretches like an anchor to the Most Holy Place in heaven. Jesus hears your prayers in that room and mixes them with incense from a burning censer. Jesus passes on the potent combination to the Father, wrapped in His complete righteousness.

Christ’s ministry in the Most Holy is the most relevant and certain thing in your life! The truth about His work changes everything.

You can live with confidence, because you know that Jesus has a place for you, personally, to make a difference on earth.

Walking by faith has nothing to do with feelings. When you anchor faith on Jesus in His sanctuary, what can move you?

Faith grows and wounded pride dies. Jesus is meek. Why should I rate myself? Faith grows, gossip goes. Holy conversation reigns. Faith grows, life gains a Master Planner. This is His path for me today, so I walk it. Faith grows, friends are shown. Iron sharpens iron. Faith grows, the world dims. The New Jerusalem awaits. - Jylan

Camp Fire Sharing Continues

By Caleb Hodgkinson

Recently I've been praying for a way to witness to those who I meet through work. I'm very blessed to be able to go into a lot of people's houses through my apprenticeship, and it's the perfect opportunity to share Christ with others.

I prayed for a couple of months about how to best start conversations with people.

About the same time I talked to my boss, who is also an Adventist, and asked him if I could play Christian-instrumental music on the radio instead of what's normally played. Praise the Lord he agreed. I am amazed how many people notice the music we listen too, the quality of work we do and the way we talk. They are amazed at the difference between us and other tradesmen. People come and say we love your music, your good attitude and they make the comment that we must be Christians.

I strongly believe we are to take Christ with us from our homes in the morning and let Him lead us all through the day. It's our privilege to be lights on the hill in our communities.

It's amazing how many opportunities I have had to talk to people about Christ, and share books with.

I'd love to encourage those who are not actively sharing Christ with others, to stand up and be that light on the hill for Jesus! Pray for opportunities to share Christ and they will come.

"Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Matthew 5:13-16. (ChS 112.1)

"If you truly belong to Christ, you will have opportunities for witnessing for Him". (Adventist Home, p 519)

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel. Ephesians 6:18,19

Motivating Scripture Memorisation

The Bible in the Memory is better than
The Bible in the bookcase.
- Spurgeon

Being Motivated to Memorise God's word will get you nowhere

UNLESS you have a PLAN.

A plan consists of:

- Know it is God's will for your sanctification.
- Commit to making it a life habit .
- Begin with familiar verses or short simple verses, always including references.
- Don't overload yourself with too many verses at once, give yourself time to meditate on every verse memorised.
- Set the same time and place every day to memorise, eg make it part of your regular morning worship.
- Always pray before memorising. Claim John 14:26
- Memorise aloud, have an accountability partner to recite to once a week.
- Learn word perfect including the reference. Say reference, then verse, then reference

Have you had an experience since camp you'd like to share, small or large?
Would you like to thank God for something? Has something inspired you lately?
You might be tempted to think that your testimony is not very important, but be assured that it will touch a heart and will be just what someone needs to hear.
(If any little word of mine)
Would you like to share it?

Please email mrsgodfrey@mus.camp

Do you think like a goose ?

As each goose flaps its wings, it creates 'uplift' for the bird following; by flying in a "V" formation the whole flock adds 71% more flying range than if each bird flew alone.

Lesson: People who share a common direction and sense of community can get where they are going quicker and easier because they are travelling on the thrust of one another.

When a goose falls out of formation it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of trying to fly alone and quickly gets back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird immediately in front.

Lesson: If we have as much sense as a goose, we will join in formation with those who are headed where we want to go.

When the lead goose gets tired, it retreats back into the formation and another goose flies at the point position.

Lesson: It pays to take turns doing the lead tasks and sharing leadership with people as with geese - interdependent with one another.

The geese in formation honk from behind to encourage those up front to keep up the speed.

Lesson: We need to make sure our honking from behind is encouraging - not something less than helpful.

When a goose gets sick or wounded or shot down, two geese drop out of formation and follow their fellow member down to help provide protection. They stay with this member of the flock until he or she is able to fly again or dies. Then they launch out on their own, with another formation or to catch up with their own flock.

Lesson: If we have as much sense as the geese, we'll stand by one another like they do.

DARE TO BE A DANIEL

1. Stand - ing by a pur - pose true, Heed - ing God's com - mand,
 2. Man - y might - y men are lost, Dar - ing not to stand,
 3. Man - y gi - ants, great and tall, Stalk - ing thru the land,
 4. Hold the gos - pel ban - ner high! On to vic - t'ry grand!

Even though you may not feel able to speak a word to those who are working on wrong principles, leave them. Your withdrawal and silence may do more than words. Nehemiah refused to associate with those who were untrue to principle, and he would not permit his workmen to associate with them. The love and fear of God were his safeguard. He lived and worked as in view of the unseen world. And David said, "I have set the Lord always before me."

Dare to be a Daniel. Dare to stand alone. Thus, as did Moses, you will endure the seeing of Him who is invisible. But a cowardly and silent reserve before evil associates, while you listen to their devices, makes you one with them.

Have courage to do right. The Lord's promise is more valuable than gold and silver to all who are doers of His Word. Let all regard it as a great honor to be acknowledged by God as His children (The Review and Herald, May 9, 1899)
